

Creating New Blends

"Tell me, I forget; Show me, I remember; Involve me, I understand."
Carl Orff, composer (1895-1982).

ANCOS is delighted to bring you this opportunity to experience and celebrate the vibrancy and innovation of the Orff Schulwerk approach to creative music education. Music educators from all sectors will enhance their knowledge & skills through active participation in moving, singing, playing, improvising & composing music.

Featured presenters:

Lenka

Lenka Pospisilova currently teaches in the Pedagogical faculty of Charles University, Prague. An accomplished pianist, she has studied under Pavel Jurkovic, a friend of Carl Orff. Founding a music education course specific to children aged 6-15 years old, Lenka unites various disciplines of music with other activities such as movement, drama, improvisation and more.

Reinhold

Reinhold Wirsching is professor of Elemental Music Education at Anton Brucker University, Linz, Austria. He is also currently teaching ensemble, conducting, solfeggio and elemental composition at the Orff Institute, in Salzburg. Reinhold has presented at numerous international courses as well as conducting many choirs and vocal ensembles.

Lynn

Lynn Kleiner is founder and director of Music Rhapsody, a music school for parents and infants, toddlers and young children up through 8th grade Orff and recorder ensembles. Since 1983, Lynn and her team of teachers have taught thousands of children in day care centers, preschools, elementary schools and at Music Rhapsody locations throughout the USA.

Sarah

Sarah Reeve is the Head Teacher of Music at Hunter School of the Performing Arts in Newcastle NSW. She is an Orff practitioner with extensive experience in the classroom and directing extra curricular ensembles. Sarah has presented at creative music conferences, Orff levels courses and workshops throughout Australia.
