

Life's a Celebration

'The Power of You' © Susie and Phil (Susie Davies-Splitter & Phil Splitter)

When life starts to get you down and your smile becomes a frown
There seems nothing you can do and the only song you're singing is the blues
It's time to look at your reflection, you gotta start heading in a new direction
Appreciate each breath you take and celebrate the life you make

Chorus:

Life's a celebration here's your invitation it's up to you.
Life's a celebration just do the best that you can do.

And when the new day greets you, do you just let life defeat you
Or do you bounce up on your feet and smile at people that you meet
You see life is what you make it, you only get one chance so take it
You gotta start giving and relating, only then can you start celebrating

Chorus:

Life's a celebration here's your invitation it's up to you.
Life's a celebration just do the best that you can do.
Doo doo doo doo doo.....

There's a difference you can make, now's the time it's not too late
Join in and do your part feel the love that's in your heart
Just reach out and lend a hand, help the people understand
To feel the rhythm and the beat, clap your hands and tap your feet

Chorus:

Life's a celebration here's your invitation it's up to you.
Life's a celebration just do the best that you can do.
Doo doo doo doo doo.....
